Fund Manager comments

Echiquier Agenor SRI Mid Cap Europe IXL turned in a negative monthly performance of -0.24%.

Stock markets took a breather in January after a spectacular two-month rally at the end of 2023. Central bankers adopted a more cautious tone regarding the timing of the first rate cut, which the markets had been anticipating since March. The fund performed in line with its index, buoyed by the strong momentum of tech stocks (ALTEN +26bp; ASM I +25bp), and the good performance of our defensive stocks (SCOUT24 +25bp; RECORDATI +22bp; SPIE +24bp). Conversely, the fund was penalised by profit-taking on our high multiples stocks (NEOEN -54bp; IMCD -41bp; DIPLOMA -29bp). Initial earnings reports and messages for 2024 are generally positive, despite a macroeconomic environment that remains uncertain. We remain confident in the positioning of our companies, which are capable of growing independently of the economic cycle, as they have demonstrated in recent years. The cycle of monetary easing that will begin in 2024 should be favourable for the fund's growth and quality positioning.
